NEWS OF THE DAY.

Lorrillard's Winnings.

THE DERBY IN BRIEF.

International Walking Match

RIOTS AT CLONMEL.

St. Louis Brewers' Strike.

ACTION OF THE PORTE.

Jerome Park Races.

The Lorrillard Bonanza.
A Newport (R. I.) dispatch states that a brother of Mr. Lorrillard is authority for the statement that the latter wins $2,000,000 on one bet made on the result of the Derby race. This is doubtless an exaggeration, but as it is known Mr. Lorrillard is a heavy better and the odds against his horse were great until recently, it is safe to conclude that his winnings on the event are very considerable. The Derby for this year closed with 241 subscribers, and the stakes alone which Irquois landed for Mr. Lorrillard amounted to 6,375 guineas, or about $33,000.

The Derby Day.
At the start Marshal MacDonald took a slight lead of Culloden and St. Lois. These three came on in a line clear of Cumberland, Don Fulano, Toun Moor, Geologist and Fortissimo. The next lot were Irquois and Peregrine. On passing the mile post St. Lois, Tristan, Toun Moor, Irquois and Peregrine were the most prominent, with Don Fulano well up. There was little alteration in position to Tottenham corner, where St. Lois was beaten, and Peregrine, after cannooning against Geologist and nearly capsizing him, took a slight lead on entering the straight, and at the distance pole he looked like winning in a canter, but Irquois came on with a rush, and, heading Peregrine in a few strides, won cleverly, with Peregrine second, and Toun Moor third, followed by Scobell, Cumberland, Voluntary, Tristan, Limestone, Geologist and Fortissimo in the order named, and the others tailed off. The track was in good condition and very hard. Irquois won cleverly by half a length, with two lengths between Peregrine and Toun Moor. The time of the race was 3 minutes 50 seconds.

Clonmel Riots.
As the result of the collision between the people and the soldiery about thirty civilians are suffering from bayonet thrusts and sword cuts inflicted by the soldiers. One policeman has died of his injuries, and some wounded soldiers are not expected to live. It is said that an agent has been shot near Woodford, in Lough-rene county, for refusing to accept payment of rent on the basis of the Griffith valuation.

Brewers' Strike.
About 250 journeymen brewers, or from a quarter to a third of the men employed in the breweries of St. Louis, have struck for higher wages.

Races at Jerome Park.
The races at Jerome Park Park yesterday were: First race, one mile, Luke Blackburn, Topsy second, E. A. Clabaugh's Potomac, third; time 1:45. Second race, the Fordham handicap, one mile and a quarter, Gifford, Sir Hugh second, time 2:14. Third race, Withers stakes, one mile, won by ex-Gov. Bowie's Crickmore in a gallop by an open length. Triam second, Fillette third; time 1:45. Fourth race, juvenile stakes for two-year-olds, half mile, Onandago, Gerale second; time 50 1/2. Fifth race, one mile and three-quarters, Grenada, Ventriloquist second; time 3:15 1/2.

A Boy's Despair.
Joel Fountain, aged 13, committed suicide by hanging in Pierrepont, New York, because he had been reprimanded by his father.

Rowell and Weston.
The international walking match for the championship in which Rowell and Weston have entered, will begin June 20, at Marble Rink, Chaphan road. Rowell walked up to London on Tuesday to meet Weston. They are both looking well, Weston especially.

Working Like a Turk.
Energetic measures are being taken in Macedonia and Armenia for the suppression of the revolutionary agitations.
The Boston Exposition.
A second meeting of prominent Bostonians and other New Englanders interested in the proposed world's fair at Boston in 1885 was held in that city last night. A resolution was adopted for the appointment of a committee of 27 to consider the whole subject, probable cost and income, site, time, etc., to report at an adjourned meeting June 5.

Kidnapping His Own Son.
C. E. Hill was arrested yesterday on his arrival at Hoboken, N. J., from Syracuse, N. Y., on a telegram charging him with kidnapping his own child. A lady nearly 10 years of age, Mr. Hill is a large railroad contractor in China, where he has resided for some years, being separated from his wife on account of mutual charges of infidelity and pending suits for divorce. He returned home recently, and taking the boy in a carriage as he was returning from school, hurried him to the cars and left for New York. The boy says he does not wish to go with his father. Both are held for further developments.

VIEWS OF THE NEW YORK PRESS.

The Hour and the Man.
The Herald of this morning in a lengthy editorial upon "the political situation," says: The time is ripe for a readjustment of our party relations. Whether Mr. Conkling wishes this or not events are driving him toward it with an irresistible force. It is moonshine to talk of a harmonious republican party after the washing of political dirty linen which we have seen in Albany and Washington.

A New Party Wanted.
It will be an advantage to the country to have a new party, and the time is propitious for a really great and strong man, as Mr. Conkling is conceded to be, to come to the front and organize and lead it. A healthy and vigorous opposition—that will criticize and condemn—is needed to keep the republican party and the administration in order. This Mr. Conkling can accomplish whether defeated or elected.

In Defeat—A Martyr.
If defeated it will be said that he was martyred by the administration, because he believed that a Senator was something more than a telephone between the Capitol and the White House. He will be free from entangling alliances, from oppressive party complications, from obligations to a caucus or a convention.

A New Peter the Hermit.
He can then appeal to the people, going through New York like another Peter the Hermit, preaching a crusade against the administration, monopolies, railway influences, and arouse the people to a true appreciation of the tendency of affairs.

The Country's Gain.
For ourselves, seeing that good must come to the people from this strife, we regard the situation with complacency. Whichever side wins will be to the advantage of the country.

What Might Have Been.
With a little tact, a little patience and a desire to consider Mr. Conkling's rights as a republican and a Senator this complication might have been avoided, and Mr. Garfield's administration would have gone sailing smoothly over the bounding seas of an unprecedented national prosperity.

The Man for the Hour.
But the divinity that rules the affairs of nations and of men has ordained otherwise. Better that the battle should be now. The hour has come, and whatever the result in Albany the man for the hour is Roscoe Conkling.

Hayes on Conkling.
The World to-day briefly remarks: Mr. R. B. Hayes has submitted to an interview in order to express the pleasure which he feels in the fact that somebody else is not afraid to fight Mr. R. Conkling.

What is he Waiting For?
The Tribune to-day puts its question thus: What is Conkling waiting for? He resigned in order to get judgment on his course in the Senate. He has his judgment. Why does he not take it like a man and get out of the way?

Personal Paragraphs.
Judge William Strong, of the Supreme Court, is at the Hygeia Hotel, Old Point Comfort.
The Hon. John Cessna has published an announcement that he is a candidate for president judge of the Bedford, Pa., judicial district.

Secretary Windom left to-day for his home in Minnesota. He expects to be absent about ten days or two weeks.

A farewell banquet was given to Minister White by the members of the lower house of the Reichstag in Berlin last night.

Admiral D. D. Porter, accompanied by his wife and daughter, arrived at Fortres Monroe yesterday, and will remain two or three weeks.

Signora Ristori is said to have quite mastered the English language, and wishes to play "Lady Macbeth" in English with Mr. Irving or some actor of position.

John James Platt, the poet, a cousin of Col. Donn Platt, wants to be consul general at Frankfurt-on-the-Main, and has strong backing from literary people.

Secretary Kirkwood writes that he will leave his home in Iowa, for this city on the 7th inst., and will probably reach here by the 10th of the month.

Gone into Training.
Myers, of the Massachusetts Athletic Club, and Merrill, of the Union Athletic Club of Boston, have gone into training for the coming amateur championship meeting at Birmingham, England. Myers will make his first public appearance in a race at the Stamford Bridge Grounds, June 25th.

Gasoline Explosion.
At a fire in a freight depot at Springfield, Mass., yesterday, an explosion of gasoline occurred, burning forty persons, including several firemen, many severely.

A Mistake.
We are requested to correct the statement published in some of the other papers that yesterday was the 51st anniversary of the birthday of Mr. Marr, of the Post Office Department. It was only the completion of the 50th year of his continuous government service, as we stated, and besides we may state that the report referred to added nearly ten years to the age of this faithful public official, who, we hope, will render inestimable service for nearly half a score of years to come before he celebrates his 51st birthday.

The Marine Band.
The weather preventing, or rather shortening the Marine Band concert yesterday, has caused some complaint from persons who were disappointed by the band failing to play on this occasion as well as Saturday last, on which day it is said, that nearly one thousand people were disappointed by the Marine Band retiring from their platform at the Capitol without offering any reason for their failure to give the concert expected.

THE WELCOME TO MR. GARRETT.

Peabody Conservatory of Music—Schools of Art and Design.
Special Dispatch to THE DAILY CRITIC.

BALTIMORE, June 2.—Patience is pictured as a feminine virtue and many tender hearts have been wishing that more of it had been possessed by two young ladies, who, upon missing their mother at our wharf declined to wait for her, and reached their home in safety by other means, while a distracted parent and an anxious police sought them for many hours through devious city ways.

Baltimore yesterday by representation of its foremost citizen gladly welcomed to his home Mr. John W. Garrett on his return from Europe, recognizing thereby his intelligent and faithful devotion to the commercial and industrial progress of our city.

Our art advancement had an able illustration last night in the annual meeting of the Peabody Conservatory of Music which reports the number of pupils as reaching 221.

Another kindred success was also proved yesterday by the annual exhibition of the schools of Art and Design of the Maryland Institute. Much intelligent and meritorious work is exhibited and the results open a bright prospect of future excellence.

Coalition in France.
PARIS, June 2.—It is rumored that a coalition has been formed by M. Jules Simon, M. Waddington, the Duke de Broglie and M. de Fortoul, countenanced by President Grevy, to defeat the Scrutin de Liste bill in the Senate.

A Suicide.
LONDON, June 2.—The Standard's Vienna dispatch says: "Field Marshal Tschirch, brother of the celebrated Admiral Tschirch, has committed suicide. He had been long suffering from an incurable malady."

England and Tunis.
LONDON, June 2.—The Standard this morning says that Her Majesty's Iron-clad Monarch will be stationed at Tunis to protect British interests there. The French authorities admit that the captain of the French gunboat Leopard exceeded his duty in searching British vessels. The French gunboat Leopard boarded a Maltese schooner off Tunis, examined her papers and left guards on board, who accompanied the vessel to Monastir.

A Patriotic Parallel.
LONDON, June 2.—United States Minister Lowell, speaking at the ceremony of laying the first stone of Selwyn College, Cambridge, said he hoped the College would prosper in proportion to the success of that college founded 240 years ago by Cambridge graduates in his country.

Gortschakoff Visits Bismarck.
LONDON, June 2.—The Times' correspondent at Berlin says Prince Gortschakoff visited Prince Bismarck on Monday and Tuesday.

The Turkish Forces.
LONDON, June 2.—One half of the Turkish forces in Thessaly will remain there to facilitate the surrender of the territory to Greece. The other half will go to Tripoli.

Cornell at Henley.
NEW YORK, June 2.—Mr. H. F. Gillig has placed documents and influential representations before the Henley Regatta stewards regarding the entry of the Cornell University crew and they have taken them under advisement. There seems, therefore, reason to anticipate a reversal of the former decision of the stewards.

Death of Prof. Bernays.
LONDON, June 2.—Professor Bernays, professor of classical philology and librarian of the Bonn University, is dead.

Given Up as Lost.
GLOUCESTER, Mass., June 2.—The owners of the schooner Carrie S. Dagle, Messrs. William Parsons & Co., have given her up as lost. She sailed from this port on a Western Bank trip March 15, was spoken on the banks in a leaky condition April 13, the day before the gale and has not been heard from since that date. She was valued at $3,000, and insured for $2,375, with $1,000 additional on outfits. She had a crew of twelve men.

Episcopal Convocation.
At the Washington Convocation of the Episcopal Church, held at St. John's Church yesterday Dr. Lewin was re-elected dean, and Rev. Charles D. Andrews secretary, and D. W. Middleton treasurer. Bishop Pinkney made a strong appeal in support of the establishment of a national church school for girls in the District. The committee reported that the contributions for this purpose were coming in handsomely. Hon. Montgomery Blair made a forcible address and appeal for the colored Episcopal church in this city.
